EXPERIENCE

The Washington Post

Graphics editor

DECEMBER 2014 TO PRESENT

Pitched and executed a bevy of graphics-driven explainers and interactives about the 2016 campaign and presidential transition. Also assisted with our response to breaking news and led graphics coverage of the papal visit to America. Identified ways to improve team workflows and the promotion of our content. Was recognized with several Society for News Design awards of excellence and featured in Best American Infographics books.

Design and graphics intern

SUMMER 2014

The Boston Globe

Editorial design co-op

JULY TO DECEMBER 2013

Designed for print and online across the newsroom, including for Metro, Business, Sports, Living/Arts and Travel. A range of assignments included daily section fronts, sports graphics, illustrations, eBooks and art direction. Won two Society for News Design awards of excellence for work done at the Globe.

National Public Radio

Editorial design intern

JUNE TO AUGUST 2012

Created infographics and interactives to accompany stories on NPR.org. Collaborated with editors and producers on special projects.

The Daily Tar Heel

Design and graphics editor

JUNE 2012 TO MAY 2013

Oversaw page layout and graphics design for the daily newspaper. Planned front-page packages and special projects, trained the staff in basic skills and topics such as alternative story forms and infographics. Our work was recognized by the Associated Collegiate Press with a Pacemaker Award.

Additional roles: Copy desk assistant editor; Special sections assistant editor
